

Ms Noelle Waldron is the Alternate EMSA Administrative Board member for Ireland. She is currently Principal Officer in the Maritime Safety Policy Division of the Department of Transport, based in Dublin. Previously, she has held roles in the Department of Health and the Department of Further and Higher Education, Research, Innovation and Science. Prior to joining the Civil Service, she worked in the private sector and holds a MEconSc in Policy Analysis and a MSc in Biological Sciences.