|--|---|
| Countries recognised for STCW certificate | Iceland recognises States on the so-called IMO White List, with due reference to the latest version of the List of third countries recognised at EU level (STCW-IS). Iceland has concluded agreements with the following states for recognition of Icelandic STCW Certificates. Since there are no SOLAS ships flying the Icelandic flag, there is no need for Iceland to issue endorsements. Therefore, all the agreements are unilateral, i.e. the third countries are only recognising Icelandic Certificates of Competency and not vice versa. These are the States that have concluded unilateral agreements with Iceland for recognition of Icelandic CoCs: Antigua and Barbuda, Bahamas, Barbados, Belize, Dominica, Hong Kong, Indonesia, Isle of Man, Liberia, Marshall Islands, New Zealand, Panama, Singapore, St. Vincent and the Grenadines and Vanuatu. Iceland did conclude agreements with several EU States and Norway before the List of third countries recognised at EU level was developed. Those agreements are technically still in force. |
