¹ Personal data is any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person, i.e. someone who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, an identification number, location data, an online identifier or to one or more factors specific to the physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural or social identity. This information may, for example, be the name, date of birth, a telephone number, biometric data, medical data, a picture, professional details, etc.

Processing means any operation or set of operations which is performed on personal data, whether or not by automatic means, such as collection, recording, organisation, structuring, storage, adaptation or alteration, retrieval, consultation, use, disclosure by transmission, dissemination or otherwise making available, alignment or combination, restriction, erasure or destruction.

² In case of more than one controller (e.g. joint operations), all controllers need to be listed here

³ This is the unit that decides that the processing takes place and why.

⁴ Is EMSA itself conducting the processing? Or has a provider been contracted?

3) Purpose of the processing (Article 31.1(b))

Why are the personal data being processed? Specify the rationale and underlying reason for the processing and describe the individual steps used for the processing.

Promotion and reclassification are means used by the Agency to motivate its workforce which in turn contributes to ensuring quality of work.

Promotion for officials: Article 45 of the Staff Regulations;

Reclassification for temporary and contract agents: Articles 54(1) of the CEOS and 87(3) of the CEOS respectively.

The promotion/reclassification process is as follows:

- Launch of promotion reclassification exercise

Publication of Administrative Notice and communication of promotion/reclassification possibilities to the Executive Director (ED) and the Heads of Departments (HoD)

- Consultation of Reporting Officers (RO) (Heads of Units (HoU))

HoDs have to consult the ROs under their responsibility

- Examination of the comparative merits

Meeting of ED, HoDs and the Head of the Executive Office to examine the comparative merits of the staff eligible for promotion/reclassification

- ED discussion with Staff Committee (SC)

The ED holds a discussion with a delegation appointed by the SC

- Proposal sent to Joint Promotion Reclassification Committee (JPRC) and communicated to staff

The ED draws up the list of staff proposed for promotion/reclassification. List is available for consultation on the intranet

- Appeals against the fact of not being on the list

Staff have 10 working days to appeal (with supporting arguments) to JPRC if they wish so, starting from the date of communication of the promotion/ reclassification proposal.

- JPRC

The JPRC, taking into account any complaints it has received, makes comparison of merits and presents to the ED the list of staff it recommends for promotion/ reclassification

Promotion/reclassification decisions

The ED examines separately the staff eligible for promotion/ reclassification, grade by grade, and examines the appeals.

After the final comparison of merits, the ED adopts the list of promoted/reclassified staff.

Publication of the list of promoted/ reclassified staff.

The JPRC may also consult the CDR and probationary reports, at their turn and in particular, in order to enable them to evaluate any complaints it receives with regard to not being included on the list of staff proposed for promotion/ reclassification. The relevant Legal Officer(s), in the case of Article 90(2) complaints, may also consult these reports.

The promotion decision for officials and contract amendment for temporary agents and contract agents are stored in Ares and in the e-personal file of the staff member.

Cloud (give details, e.g. public cloud) ☐

Servers of external provider ☐

Other (please specify): x

The official file is stored in ARES..

10) Retention time (Article 4(e))

How long will the data be retained and what is the justification for the retention period? Keep in mind that there are pre-determined retention periods for most types of files. Those are explained in the Records Management Policy and Procedure of the Agency. You can check EMSA Records Management Policy and Procedure here.

The annual promotion/reclassification file stored in ARES. is kept for 10 years and eliminated after the administrative retention period.

The individual contract amendments/promotion decisions are part of the e-personnel files which are destroyed 10 years following the termination of employment or the last pension payment.

In case of legal action against the non-promotion/reclassification decision, the retention period is extended until one year after the final decision.

Thank you for completing the form.
Now please send it to the DPO using the ARES workflow
