

MARINE POLLUTION RESPONSE SERVICES

OIL SPILL RESPONSE SERVICES

- Network of stand-by oil spill response vessels
- Dispersant stockpiles
- Equipment Assistance Service (EAS)
- CleanSeaNet oil spill monitoring
- Clear and pre-defined activation
- Ready for mobilisation 24/7

KEY FEATURES

VESSEL NETWORK

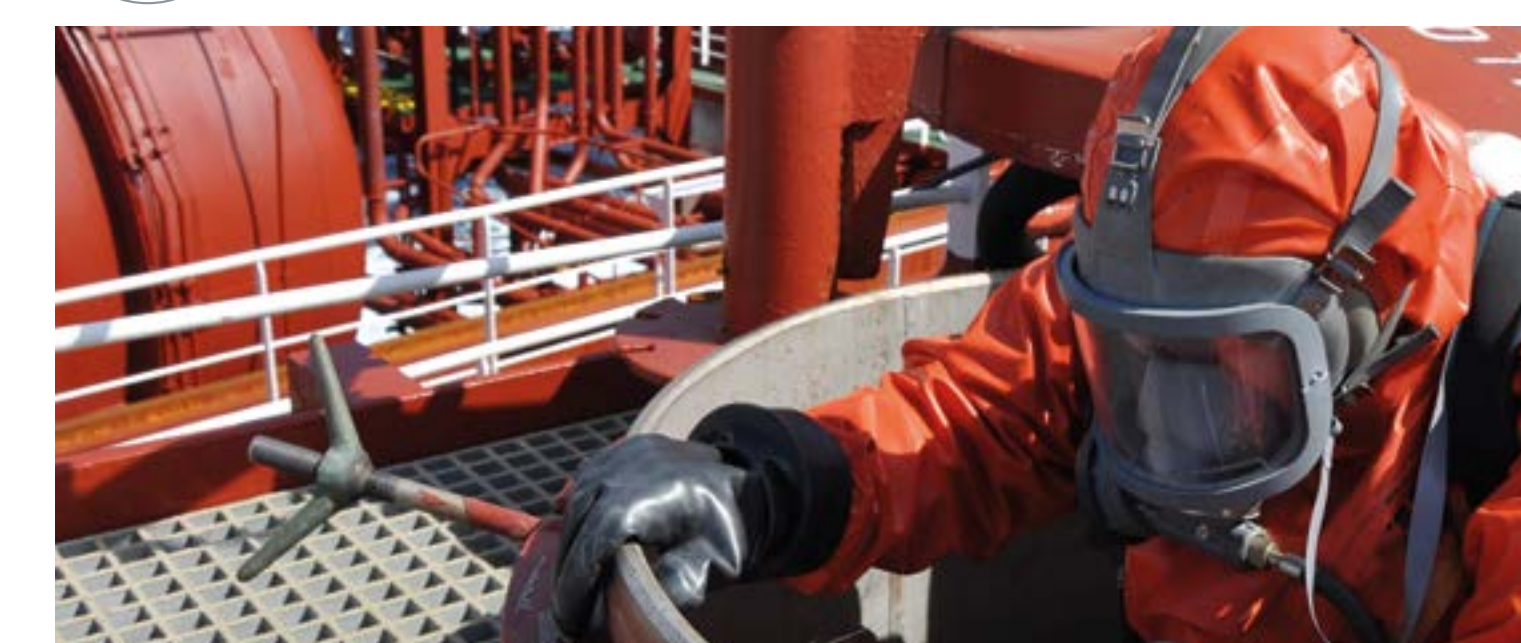

- 18 vessels equipped with mechanical recovery systems and oil slick detection
- Large storage capacity with ability to heat recovered oil
- Capability for recovery of oil with a FP \leq 60°C
- Dispersant application capability and stock available through four vessel arrangements
- 24h mobilisation time

EQUIPMENT ASSISTANCE SERVICE

- Three stockpiles of stand-alone equipment for VOO around Europe
- Choice from integrated containment and recovery systems and fire booms
- Technical support available
- 12h mobilisation time

MAR-ICE NETWORK

- Rapid and easy access to expert advice
- Product and incident specific support
- Partnership with the chemical industry
- Risk assessment, drift/weathering modelling and response advice

CLEANSEANET SERVICE

- Satellite-based oil spill monitoring and vessel detection
- Images available within 30 minutes of acquisition
- Contributing to the identification of polluters
- Support during oil spill emergencies

CHEMICAL SPILL RESPONSE SERVICES

- MAR-ICE Network providing 24/7 expert information and advice during chemical incidents
- MAR-CIS database of substance-specific chemical information sheets for maritime transport

ACTIVATION OF SERVICES

