

CIRRICULUM VITAE

MICHAELA PETERKOVA is an Alternate Member of the EMSA Administrative Board for Czech Republic. Michaela is currently Head of Maritime Transport Unit of the Department of Waterway Transport at the Ministry of Transport which has the role of the Maritime Authority in the Czech Republic.

During the past 19 years, Michaela served in various positions at the Ministry of Transport and at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, including the Permanent Representation in Brussels, where she shortly covered among others the Maritime Working Group of the Council.

Prior to joining the Civil Service, she worked in the private sector at an attorney company. She holds a doctor´s degree of Law from the Charles University in Prague and Master of Engineering in International Trade and Business from the University of Economics.