-The Romanian Naval Authority is the specialized central authority under the Ministry of Transport in the field of navigation safety and ship security. NRA is organized and operates according to the provisions of Government Decision no. 1133/2002 and Government Ordinance no. 42/1997 on the maritime and inland waterway transport, as subsequently amended and supplemented.

The Romanian Naval Authority is a public institution with extra-budgetary financing, with legal personality, established by the merger of the Civil Navigation Inspectorate with the Autonomous Registry "Romanian Naval Register". Following the merger, the RNA took over all the rights and obligations of the two legal entities that had abolished.

The organizational structure of the Naval Authority comprises its own central apparatus (consisting of departments, services, offices) and operational territorial organs, operating in the territory with over 690 employees.

The central office of ANR has its functional departments, the Personnel Navigation Directorate, the Inspection, Safety and Naval Security Directorate, the Technical Directorate, the Economic Directorate and the European Affairs and International Relations Department.

Operational territorial units are units without legal personality, subordinated to the central apparatus, consisting of regional harbour masters and technical inspectorates. Under the authority of the Naval Authority, there are 5 Regional Harbour Masters in Constanta, Tulcea, Galati, Giurgiu and Drobeta Turnu Severin, to which the port captains and the captains' offices in the specific jurisdiction areas are subordinated. Areas of jurisdiction of the operational territorial organs shall be established by the Director General and approved by the RNA's Board of Directors.
